

SPECIAL NOTICE REQUEST

Walla Walla Municipal Code Section 20.14.015 Special notice.

A party may request special notification of applications, environmental checklists, determinations, notices, hearings, and decisions regarding a proposal or type of proposal only by filing a written request with the department. A party may request special notification of interpretation requests and department interpretations only by filing a written request with the department. Requests for special notification must designate a single person or entity to receive notice and provide a single address which shall serve as the address for all correspondence and any required notice. It shall be the requesting party's responsibility to notify the city in writing of any change of address or designation. A request for special notification must identify with reasonable specificity the proposal, type of proposal, or interpretation request in which the requesting party is interested. Requests for notice regarding a particular proposal shall lapse when the approving authority's decision on the proposal becomes final. Requests for notice regarding certain types of proposals shall lapse one year following the filing of the request, and a requesting party must annually re-file such special notification requests. Requests for notice of interpretation requests shall lapse one year following the filing of the request, and a requesting party must annually re-file such special notification requests. (Ord. 2008-06 § 24, 2008).
